Please answer the following questions and return prior to the CIT Retreat.

1. What do you look forward to most about coming to camp?

2. Have you ever been to camp before? If so, explain. If not, what worries do you have about "camp"?
3. What worries or concerns do you have about being a CIT?
4. Have you ever taken care of children? If so, please explain and describe.
5. When was the last time you had to maintain a high level of energy when you were exhausted? How did you stay up for the moment?
6. Which of the activities described in the camp literature do you look forward to experimenting in?
7. Which of the camp activities would you like to help to teach?
8. Does the fact that we pray before meals, have devotional moments, and yet welcome children and staff of all religious backgrounds bother you? If so why or how so? If not, why not?
9. Describe your idea of the nightmare camper and the situation s/he would place you in.
10. In the final analysis, what do you hope to be remembered for as an individual?
11. What are you passionate about?
12. Have you ever experienced homesickness? What do you think you might do to help someone who is homesick feel better?
